

Join the Friends of the Ipswich Art Gallery for a Tour & Lunch at the Tweed Regional Gallery & Café

Tweed Gallery Café and surrounding views | Inside the Margaret Olley Art Centre at Tweed Regional Gallery

WHEN: Sunday 16 July 2017 | 8.30am to 3.30pm

Spend a leisurely Sunday in the company of like-minded Friends on a private bus tour to the Tweed Regional Gallery in picturesque Murwillumbah, northern NSW.

Take in a guided tour of the international exhibition David Hockney: Words and Pictures featuring the artist's prints from the 1960s and 70s held in the British Council Collection as well as the joys of the Margaret Olley Art Centre celebrating the career, life and legacy of Australia's most loved painter of still life and interiors.

After, delight in the breathtaking panorama of rolling hills, Mount Warning and the Tweed River while enjoying a sumptuous lunch of gourmet sourdough sandwiches and selection of cakes served with tea/ coffee at the Tweed Gallery Café.

Friends of the Gallery $ 70 | General admission $ 80

All inclusive price includes bus transport, exhibition admission and tours, and lunch with tea/coffee.

The Tour Bus will depart from RSL Park, Nicholas Street at 8.30am sharp and return around 3.30pm.
